PUBLIC HEARING — OCTOBER 12, 1917, AS TO IMPROVEMENT OF LAIMI, PARK AND PUIWA ROADS

To all property owners abutting upon, or affected by the improvement of Laimi, Park and Puiwa Roads within Frontage Improvement Number Seven and to all persons interested generally:

WHEREAS, more than 60% of all property owners to be assessed within Frontage Improvement Number Seven, Laimi, Park and Puiwa Road, have requested a final public hearing as to this improvement and as to the award of the contract therefor to the lowest responsible bidder, John Dugan, and have entered into certain binding agreements with the Board of Supervisors and the City and County of Honolulu which have been accepted by said board.

NOW THEREFORE you and each of you are hereby notified that in response to said request and further in acceptance of said agreements, the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu will hold a public hearing at their Assembly Hall on Thursday, the 18th day of October, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., or as soon thereafter as those interested may be heard for the purpose set forth in said requests and agreements filed with this board and open for inspection at the office of the City and County clerk during business hours.

Honolulu, October 4, 1917.
By order of the Board of Supervisors:
D. KALAUOKALANI,
City and County Clerk.

15 EXAMINED BY
LOCAL BOARD; 8
FOUND QUALIFIED

Eight men physically qualified and seven disqualified for physical disabilities was the result of a six-hour session of Honolulu exemption board No. 1, which met from 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon to 10:30 o'clock last night at the armory.

In addition to these 15 men, one other, Harry I. Kurisaki, a Japanese from Los Angeles, was given leave to bring papers to prove that he was a member of the national guard. He was not given a physical examination last night.

Charles L. Sims, whose local address is said to be 1504 King street, The Granville, and who was transferred from Fairfield, Cal., did not appear in response to a notice for some reason unknown to the board today.

Besides the regular board members consisting of H. Gooding Field, Judge Antonio Perry and Dr. A. F. Jackson, there were present Maj. F. J. Green, Dr. W. C. Hobdy, F. J. Lowrey and Dr. H. B. Cooper. The three latter make up the second Honolulu board.

Following are those who were found physically qualified for service:
Roy Benjamin, Henry E. Carlson, Chester P. Gamberton, Joseph M. Comiskey, Frank Pachmayr, Charles Roster, S. Y. Young and Antone J. Gomez.

The following were found physically disqualified:

Lawrence P. Kelsey, Arthur N. Lovene, Bert McLean, Ross Millman, Paul Waldo Rushforth, Le Conte Stewart, Charles Gotsal Street. McLean, though physically disqualified at present, will probably qualify later, it was stated by the physicians.

Seven days are given to any of the candidates in which to file their claims for exemption on other grounds, if any, or in case of their witnesses being on the mainland the time will be extended.

CLAIM OFFICER
MADE NO ARREST
BUT ASKED BAIL

Investigation into charges preferred against Police Officer Arthur B. Palmer, of Wahiawa, and submitted to the Honolulu Civil Service Commissioners yesterday morning, will be carried out by Sheriff Charles Rose. The charges against the police officer were turned over to the sheriff, and his report will be submitted and acted upon at the next meeting of the commissioners Saturday.

Officer Palmer, it is alleged, threatened to arrest J. Sakai, a Wahiawa Japanese, for alleged selling of liquor without a license. He also demanded $125 bail from the Japanese, it is alleged. No arrest was ever made, according to the commissioners, and they claim that Palmer maintains and operates an automobile and is living beyond his means.

Fire Chief Thurston was upheld in his action in removing Watchdog Geo. Macy, for drunkenness while on duty. He has appointed John Moses to fill the place temporarily, and if the latter is on the eligible list he will receive the place permanently. No other business was brought up at the meeting.

SCAVENIUS FAILS TO JOIN BRITISH ARMY; 5 REJECTED

Turned down because of physical disabilities, slight and otherwise, five Hawaii Britishers who left here the latter part of September to enlist in the British overseas military forces, have returned to the islands. The rejected applicants, all of whom have at least shown their willingness to fight for the British cause against the Huns, declare that the British medical inspection is just as strict today in Vancouver as it was at the beginning of the war.

Those who were rejected and have returned to Hawaii are Patty Moffitt, T. H. Thompson, Tommy Hull, Joe Hauser and John Johnson. Most of them could have joined the home defense force of Canada in spite of their disabilities, but they had all left here with the determination that it was to be "over the seas or nothing."

Two others were rejected in Vancouver. One was James Singleton, known in Honolulu as Fritz Scavenius, who was refused entry to the British army because of heart trouble. Harry Lewis was the other, who still suffers from wounds he received while serving with the American army on the Mexican border. They have gone to Seattle.

William Batterbury and Joe Blackwood, who left with the second British contingent from the islands, are now enrolled as members of the 28th Canadian Infantry, as are several others from Hawaii.

William Wright, Barney Turner, Archie Hickman and Jack Rothwell went on to New York for their medical examination, as they wanted to join the British Imperial forces. Rothwell has been admitted to the aviation branch of the British army, it is reported.

SOUTH SEA MAN
STRUCK BY AUTO

Because they ran down and seriously injured M. I. Bibiki, a South Sea Islander, Lewis Fulz, a colored man, who left with the second British contingent from the islands, is not considered serious. Annie Parker was said to be driving the car at the time, and as she has no license to do so, will probably be charged with that offense. The others in the car will probably be charged with abandoning an injured person.

According to the police the car was a rent car, driven by a Japanese. He had taken the party out for a ride, and upon returning to the city, the woman prevailed upon the Japanese to allow her to drive. Approaching Maunakea and King streets, the woman became confused and ran down Bibiki. As he was struck, the occupants of the car fled, the police say, leaving the machine standing in the center of the street. Officer Branco pursued the woman and Fulz, placing them under arrest.

DINNER DANSANT

at the Moana Saturday evening. Tables may be reserved in advance.—Adv.

Professor Herbert E. Gregory, head of the Yale university geological department, will lecture at 8 o'clock next Friday evening at the University Club. The lecture is to be illustrated. There will be no charge for admission and the public is invited.

The subject of Professor Gregory's lecture is the Navajo country. He will tell of visits there from 1909 to 1913, made at the request of the federal office of Indian affairs and the geological survey bureau.

Government Official Tells Asahi
Reply Made British Will Be Given to U. S.

An informal denial has been made by Japanese government officials, regarding the reports printed in Japanese papers, what agreements have or have not been made between the American government and Viscount Ishii. The report printed in the Tokyo Asahi follows:

In reply to the recent press despatches, that all of the available Japanese shipping will be sent to the Atlantic ocean, that Japanese docks will build ships for England, that Japanese ships will help to transport war materials for Russia, as conditions, that an agreement has been reached between the Japanese and the American governments concerning it, and that the agreement will shortly be published; an official of the Japanese government said:

"Some time ago it was rumored that an agreement has been reached between the Japanese and the American governments concerning the question of protection of the Atlantic ocean. Now a similar rumor has come to be circulated as to the American steel ban question. So it is not unnatural for some people to imagine that important matters are under negotiations between the two nations.

"But as far as we know, no such negotiations are going on between the two nations. It is true that the American government expressed a desire to our Ambassador Sato that at this time Japanese ships be loaned to secret detective work seem to be carried on concerning the number of ships which Japan might supply to America. The despatches from abroad in question may have misrepresented this detective work done.

"Even if such negotiations as are rumored should be conducted, Japan which declined to comply with the request of England when such request came, by explaining conditions prevailing in this country, cannot oblige America by sending a part of our ships to the Atlantic ocean at the request of America.

"As for assistance in transporting war materials for Russia, it is a very complicated problem.

"The building of ships for England is what Japanese ship yards, government as well as private, are doing now as far as possible. There is no need of discussing the matter any longer. Viewed in this light, all the reports in question may be misrepresentations of facts."

EVEN FISH ARE GIVEN LIBERTY

PARIS, France.—Political happenings have succeeded one another so rapidly in Russia that French correspondents there have had little time to do more than occupy themselves with them, and descriptive articles from those journalists have been few regarding the effect of the revolution on the mass of the people and its results in the provinces. And among the peasants. One or two articles, however, have appeared which throw some light on the mentality of the Russians, regarded as so different from that of other Europeans.

Mr. Robert de Fiers, associate editor of the Figaro, and now attached to the headquarters staff of the Russian army, has had months of study of the Russian troops serving in conjunction with those of Rumania. Here are some anecdotes from his latest article:

"There is a fine lake somewhere in the south of Russia which is connected by a channel with a smaller lake where huge carp are raised. The channel was barred by nets to prevent the carp from passing into the larger lake, and as food does not reach the troops in this district too plentifully nor in great variety, the officers were glad to vary their mess with the fish.

One day some hundreds of soldiers were gathered in a meeting—one of those meetings which have become a regular institution in the Russian army this year—plunged in deep discussion. Suddenly there was a rush toward the lakes and with cries of "Sloboda!" ("Liberty!") the men began to pull out the barriers and nets and destroy them. The officers wished to prevent the destruction but the soldiers took little notice of their reprimands; and crying "Sloboda! Sloboda! for the fish!"

TWO SALES REPORTED
BY BISHOP TRUST CO.

Demand for residential lots is increasing rapidly, according to the real estate department of the Bishop Trust Co., Ltd. Two sales were reported during the past week. The house and lots owned by A. R. Higgins on Wilhelmina Rise were sold by the company to C. Cummings Smith, and the John Robello property on Laimi road in Nuuanu valley was sold to Max Eckhart. The company is also receiving a large number of enquiries regarding the Downett tract.

JAPAN PUTS BAN ON SHIP NEWS

The censorship ban on printing news of shipping in the Pacific fell first on the Japanese newspapers in Japan which were prohibited on September 22 from mentioning the movements of British ships. The reason given for the censorship was that word had been received that there were U-boats in the Pacific. No doubt it was a confusion of the reports regarding the activity of the raider Sea Adler which gave rise to the U-boat rumors in Japan.

The Japan Advertiser of September 22 gives the following account of the establishment of the Pacific censorship:

RULES FROM NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS ON USE OF RED CROSS ARRIVE

Word has been received from the Red Cross concerning the displaying of Red Cross emblems, and the presentation of entertainments for the benefit of the organization. The instructions clear up a good many points which have arisen lately in regard to the proper occasions for the display of the Red Cross flag.

The Red Cross flag may be displayed by local chapters, and the flag may be flown from the capitol whenever the women in the throne room see fit to do so. Women actually engaged in Red Cross work, or campaigns, may wear a sash bearing the Geneva cross. It is unlawful, however, to wear a nurse's uniform bearing the insignia, unless the wearer is an authorized Red Cross nurse.

In regard to the sanctioning of entertainments for the benefit of the Red Cross, the Washington officials authorize any benefit unless the Red Cross has complete control. If the promoters attempt to divide the profits, the affair should not be sanctioned. The headquarters officials urge the local chapter to exercise the greatest discretion in allowing Red Cross benefits to be presented.

RESCUES HER SISTER FROM DROWNING AND
SHARKS AT KALAPANA

Malle Carter, a student at the Hilo Union high school, Hilo, was saved from drowning and attacks by sharks yesterday while swimming at Kalapana beach. She was rescued by her 20-year-old sister, Nellie Carter, an employee in the Hilo telephone office. The older girl, after bringing her unconscious sister to the beach, administered first-aid treatment, and saved the young girl's life.

Reports indicate that the vicinity of Kalapana beach abound with sharks, and it is believed that one of the ferocious fish was near the beach while Malle was in swimming. She apparently caught sight of the shark, for she went into hysterics and disappeared beneath the water. Her sister, who was on the shore at the time, dived in and swam to her rescue.

KILCLINE ACCEPTED IN AERO OFFICERS' RESERVE

William F. Kilcline, known to friends in Honolulu as "Mike," has been accepted in the aviation section of the signal officers' reserve corps. Kilcline was formerly a reporter on The Advertiser, but left here during the summer with the intention of offering his services to Uncle Sam.

Kilcline writes interestingly of the examination given the candidates for aero work. There was no shooting of pistols near one's head to test out his nerves, he says, but there was plenty of chair whirling to test the sense of balance. He says his experience on small boats in the island channels helped out in this ordeal, he thinks. He will train as a flyer with commission of first lieutenant.
